OUR VERY OWN

Stories Celebrating Adoptive Families

“Our Very Own” is an inspiring collection of true stories. Honest, heartfelt and reflective, these stories give readers poignant glimpses of the raw emotions which the adoptive parents go through – unbearable pain, fears, anxieties, feelings of longing and despair – while celebrating their journey of unconditional love, courage, fulfilled dreams, hope and self-discovery. The book also addresses practical adoption issues like making a decision on adoption, the adoption process, and ways to care for adopted children. A first-of-its-kind in Singapore, “Our Very Own” is a vital resource book for adoptive parents and for service providers working in the area of adoption. Read and be inspired!

Praise for Our Very Own

This book offers practical insights on the journey of adoption for families... hope you will enjoy reading this book as much as I did.

LIM SOON HOCK

Chairman, National Family Council

“Our Very Own” is a total joy... I am in awe of the simplicity with which these parents write of themselves and their children. Any of us who want to learn more about the human soul should read this book.

LARK ESHLEMAN, PhD

Founder, Director of Education, Institute for Children and Families (Lancaster, US)
Author of “Becoming a Family: Promoting Healthy Attachments with Your Adopted Child”

“Our Very Own” opens our eyes to the unique experiences of joy, despair, anxiety and challenges associated with adoption...
This is truly one of the very rare books on adoption in Singapore.

JAYASHREE MOHANTY, PhD

Assistant Professor, Department of Social Work, National University of Singapore

The stories are honest, heart-felt and reflective of all that we as adoptive parents go through... This book is a wonderful reminder of the love that we have for our children even before we met them.

JACQUELINE KHOO

Director, Private Charitable Trust & Mother of Two Adopted Children
