KALYANI K. MEHTA | HELEN KO GERONTOLOGICAL COUNSELLING

AN INTRODUCTORY HANDBOOK

This handbook is a trainer's guide to counselling elders and their family members from Asian backgrounds. It places emphasis on:

- Ageing processes and issues
- Counselling older persons and their families
- Culture-specific factors which affect the experiences of older persons

Counsellors and social workers who work with older people and their families, managers of day care centres and residential institutions, policymakers who wish to be informed about the subject, professional caregivers and those who intend to give professional instruction through workshops will find this handbook essential and useful.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR KALYANI K. MEHTA, PH.D. is Associate Professor and Head of Gerontology Programme at SIM University. She has been carrying out research in the field of Social Gerontology for the past 20 years. Although most of her research is conducted in Singapore, she has extensive knowledge of the Asia Pacific region. Her publications include 6 books and more than 35 articles on the subject of gerontology in well-reputed international and regional journals. Some of these journals include Ageing and Society, Journal of Aging Studies, International Journal of Aging and Human Development, Journal of Cross-Cultural Gerontology and Journal of Aging and Social Policy.

HELEN KO is Executive Director of Beyond Age, a training and consultancy firm with expertise in ageing issues. For over two decades, she pioneered the development of several programmes for seniors in Singapore. These include gerontological counselling, care management, day care services and training programmes on managing/counselling older employees, and mentoring courses for seniors. Helen is lead author of Understanding and Counselling Older Persons (2006) and author of Counselling Older Adults: An Asian Perspective (Write Editions, 2012). The latter features the principles, strategies, as well as a research-based, indigenous model for counselling older persons in an Asian context, and has received highly positive reviews from industry leaders.
