Good Night Marion

Good Night Marion is dedicated to parents, grandparents and caregivers who struggle to put children to bed. While the book can be read as a bedtime story, the reflective question on each page kindles conversations as the story unfolds.

Candid and captivating, author and medical doctor Dr Jade Kua hopes Good Night Marion will encourage caregivers and children to share their thoughts freely, and listen to each other empathetically. Have fun learning about yourselves and each other!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR & ILLUSTRATOR

Dr Jade Kua, the author, is a senior emergency medicine specialist, philanthropist and life coach. As a mother to many and mentor to more, she encourages them all to embrace life with curiosity and be unafraid of failure. She is most grateful for her children and stepchildren who graciously tolerate her undomestic approach to motherhood and have consequently learnt to fend for themselves rather well.

John Lim, the illustrator, using his artist name “SeeSaw”, loves to illustrate and doodle as it helps him to express his inner thoughts better than words. He has worked with different publishers and authors for over six years, illustrating for over 20 children’s books.

A GLIMPSE!
